

ADAMSVILLE

BOOK 2: THE GARDEN

M I C H A E L   R E G I N A

HUFF

HUFF

HUFF

WHY DID YOU
HAVE TO BE

RIGHT ABOUT MONSTERS? WHY?!

IT'S NOT LIKE
I'M HAPPY ABOUT IT!

A man with black hair, wearing a blue suit, is shown from the waist up, leaning forward and throwing a long, thin, segmented staff (the mop-bow) with both hands. His expression is one of determination or urgency. The background is a dark, stylized interior with geometric shapes. A speech bubble is positioned above him, and another is below him. A curved arrow points from the staff towards the bottom left, with the word 'Toss' written along its path.

WHY ARE YOU GETTING RID OF YOUR MOP-BOW STAFF?!

Toss

DON'T NEED
IT ANYMORE!
THE LIBRARY IS OPEN AHEAD!

THERE'S PLENTY OF PLACES FOR US TO HIDE IN HERE.

GREAT. WE CAN JUST THROW A BOOK AT IT.

QUICK GET BEHIND THE SHELVES!

I CAN'T HEAR
ANYTHING OUT
THERE. MAYBE WE LOST IT.

HEY!
GIVE THAT BACK
TO ME!!!

"DEAR CHLOE,
I'VE WAITED
SO LONG TO TELL
YOU ALL THIS..."

I SAID
GIVE THAT BACK!

WHOA!
WHOA!

CALM DOWN, ROMEO!

LISTEN MAN,
SHE DOESN'T LIKE YOU!
SHE'S MY GIRL!

YOU DON'T KNOW ANYTHING ABOUT HOW SHE FEELS ABOUT ME!

HEY,
LAY OFF!

I'M SO SICK OF YOUR--

OH, CRAP!

WHAT'S HAPPENING?

